

MILLENNIUM SHIELD

Presented to the Society at the Millennium Celebration 'Ear 2000' Conference by Jos Millar to commemorate many happy years in Audiology.
The Shield will be offered for the best contribution published in the BSA News

- 1999/2000 Lucy Handscomb for her article Hearing Therapists – Who needs Them? in Issue 28
- 2000/2001 Glynn Vaughan for his excellent articles on his work in developing Countries in particular The hearing-impaired children of Burma in Issue 31
- 2001/2002 Joanne Shotbolt for her article entitled Meeting the Real Needs of Families in Issue 34
- 2002/2003 Not awarded
- 2003/2004 Not awarded
- 2004/2005 Mary Hostler as principal author for her excellent article entitled Clinical Practice – A Goodness of Fit calculator and to John Bamford for his contribution to the article which appeared in Issue 42
- 2005/2006 Richard Knight and Judith Bird for their article entitled Anatomy of an Open- access hearing aid repair session clinic, in Issue 48
- 2006/2007 Ross Coles for his article entitled Audiology in the UK: 1950 to mid-70s in Issue 50
- 2007/2008 Kevin Munro for his article entitled A Tribute to Stuart Gatehouse, in Issue 53
- 2008/2009 Hashir Aazh for his articles in BSA News entitled Patient-Centred Tinnitus Management Tool: the impact on quality of care and waiting time, featured in issue 55 and The effect of using a bedside/tabletop sound generator on the outcome of a simplified form of tinnitus retraining therapy, in Issue 56

