

THOMAS SIMM LITTLER LECTURESHIP (awarded biennially)

- 1971 Sir Alexander Ewing
- 1975 Professor W Burns
- 1979 Dr T J Watson, MC
- 1983 Dr Larry Fisch
- 1985 Dr J Hood, Editor BJA, for his sterling services to the BSA Journal
- 1987 Professor Douglas Robinson, DSc, for fundamental contributions to Audiology, particularly in standardization and noise-induced hearing loss
- 1989 Professor Ronald Hinchcliffe for his pre-eminent contributions to the development of Audiology in this country; not least his original work, and his development of post-graduate teaching
- 1991 Dr Ross Coles, in recognition of his contributions to Audiology in the UK, particularly with respect to noise-induced hearing loss and tinnitus, and for his role in post-graduate education
- 1993 Dr John Knight, OBE, for his pioneering work in audiological physics and a quarter of a century of service to the Society since its inception
- 1995 The Audiologists of Ireland in recognition of the many contributions to Audiology made by Ireland. The paper given by Mr David Adams, FRCS
- 1997 Dr Denzil Brooks in recognition of his service to Audiology
- 1999 Mr Michael Martin, OBE, for contributions to technical aspects of Audiology
- 2001 Air Vice Marshal Peter King for his contributions to Audiology, in particular, the effects of noise on hearing loss over many decades
- 2003 Professor Mark Haggard – for the foundation, development and leadership of the multidisciplinary Institute of Hearing Research – an international centre of excellence for auditory research, and his scholarship in Audiology, which has facilitated major advances in the clinical practice and science of this subject in the UK
- 2005 Professor Roger Thornton in recognition of his services to Audiology
- 2007 Professor Dai Stephens
- 2009 Professor Richard Ramsden entitled Plastic Surgery for the Auditory Pathways

