

2nd Seminar on Auditory Processing Disorder (APD), Hearing in Noise and Hyperacusis

In collaboration with the British Society of Audiology (BSA) the Royal Surrey is hosting a seminar on Auditory Processing Disorder (APD), Hearing in noise and Hyperacusis and we would welcome your attendance.

When: Wednesday 4th March 2020 9:00-12:30
Venue: Education Centre Lecture Theatre, Royal Surrey County Hospital, Egerton Road, Guildford, GU2 7XX
Cost: Free admission

Seminar Agenda

- 9:00 AM Introduction
- 9:30-10:10 AM ‘Hyperacusis: Psycho-audiological assessment and management’
Dr Hashir Aazh, Tinnitus Team Lead, Royal Surrey County Hospital, Guildford UK
- 10:10-10:50 AM ‘Understanding Speech in Noise: As Facebook might say “It’s complicated”’
Professor Stuart Rosen, Faculty of Brain Sciences, University College London, UK
- 10:50-11:20 AM Break
- 11:20-12:00 AM ‘Auditory Processing Disorder in children: Unravelling the Riddle’
Professor Nicci Campbell, Auditory Implant Service, Faculty of Engineering and Environment, University of Southampton, Southampton UK
- 12:00-12:30 AM Q&A
- 12:30 AM Seminar ends

Places are allocated on a first come first service basis, please book now to avoid disappointment

To reserve a place please email: rsc-tr.AudiologySeminars@nhs.net

RSVP: Audiology Team

Contact Number: 01483 464108

