

British Society of Audiology

KNOWLEDGE | LEARNING | PRACTICE | IMPACT

BRITISH SOCIETY OF AUDIOLOGY

YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO HONOUR AN OUTSTANDING MEMBER OF THE SOCIETY

- Thomas Simm Littler Lectureship
- George Harris Award
- Denzil Brooks Trophy
- Thomas Simm Littler Prize
- Ruth Spencer Prize
- Jos Millar Shield

Nomination
Deadline
31st May 2014

See reverse for details about the awards and the nomination process

British Society of Audiology

KNOWLEDGE | LEARNING | PRACTICE | IMPACT

AWARDS THAT ARE NOMINATED BY TRUSTEES OF THE SOCIETY

Thomas Simm Littler Lectureship

The Thomas Simm Littler lectureship was established in 1970 to honour Dr Thomas Simm Littler, a pioneer of British audiology. The lectureship is awarded in recognition of a sustained academic contribution to the discipline of audiology. It is awarded biennially and consists of a certificate and honorarium. The lecture is normally delivered at the Society's annual conference. The first recipient of the lectureship was Sir Alexander Ewing. Recent recipients include Professor Dai Stephens, Professor Richard Ramsden and Professor Stuart Rosen.

George Harris Award

The George Harris award was established in 2006 using an endowment from the late George Harris who was a hearing aid audiologist working in the independent sector. The award is made in recognition of a notable contribution to hearing aid audiology in any one year. It consists of a certificate and discretionary honorarium. Previous recipients of the award include Dr Denzil Brooks, Graham Frost, Judith Bird and Dr Josephine Marriage.

Denzil Brooks Trophy

The Denzil Brooks trophy was established in 2007 in memory of the late Denzil Brooks who was a pioneer of adult hearing aid provision within the UK. The award is made to a member in recognition of promoting excellence in audiological practice. It is awarded annually and consists of a certificate and trophy. Previous recipients of the trophy include Pauline Smith, Dr Sarita Fonseca and Sally Wood.

AWARDS THAT ARE NOMINATED BY MEMBERS OF THE SOCIETY

Thomas Simm Littler Prize

The Thomas Simm Littler prize was established in 1970 to honour Dr Thomas Simm Littler, a pioneer of British audiology. The prize is awarded in recognition of an academic contribution to the discipline of audiology. It is awarded annually and consists of a certificate and honorarium. The first recipient of the award was Dr John Bench. Recent recipients of the prize include Dr Kevin J Munro, Professor Brian Moore, Dr Robert Marchbanks, Professor John Bamford, Professor Colette McKay, Dr Robert Carlyon and Professor Deb Hall.

Ruth Spencer Prize

The Ruth Spencer prize was established in 1976 to honour the memory of Ruth Spencer. It is made in recognition of a contribution to clinical services by a registered practitioner. It is awarded annually and consists of a certificate and honorarium. The original recipient was Hilary Ballam. Recent recipients include Karen Finch, Helen Pryce, Fiona Barker and Rachel Knappett.

AWARDS THAT ARE NOMINATED BY THE EDITORIAL TEAM OF BSA NEWS

Jos Millar Shield

The Jos Millar shield was established in 2000 by the winner of the 1997 Ruth Spencer prize. It is awarded annually for the best article published in BSA News and consists of a certificate and shield. Recipients of the award include Hashir Aazh, Debbie Fife, Douglas Beck and Ravi Sockalingham.

THE NOMINATION PROCESS

Members can make nominations for prizes and awards throughout the year. The final date for nominations to be considered in a given calendar year is 31 May 2014 (except for the TS Littler lectureship which is 31 December of the previous year). In order to nominate a member, you should submit a letter of support (250 word limit) including a citation for the award and a CV or brief biography (100 word limit). The winner of each award and prize is determined by the Trustees of the Society, usually at the June Council meeting of each year. The awards and prizes are made at the Annual Conference in September. Nominations should be sent to BSA, 80 Brighton Road, Reading, RG6 1PS. Email: bsa@thebsa.org.uk. In the case of the Jos Millar shield, the editorial team should submit the article along with a letter of support instead of a CV or biography.*