

BSA ONLINE EVENTS HIGHLIGHTS OF 2017

In 2017 the BSA launched our new online learning platform BSA Grow. Have you logged on and viewed any of the resources? Here's some of the highlights from this year.

Lunch & Learn webinars with national and international speakers

What has the National Acoustics Laboratories done for Audiology?

Harvey Dillon, Research Consultant, National Acoustic Laboratories, Australia; Visiting Professor of Auditory Science

Commissioning, Cost-Effectiveness and Cuts

Gemma Twitchen, Senior Audiologist, Action on Hearing Loss

Veterans with post-traumatic stress disorder: Signs, symptoms and treatment

Dr Manveer Kaur, Senior Clinical Psychologist, Combat Stress

Babies Benefit from High-Quality Hearing Aid Fittings

Marlene Bagatto, Au.D., Ph.D. - National Centre for Audiology, Western University, Ontario, Canada

Validation and development of the STRIPES test as a measure of spectro-temporal processing in cochlear-implant listeners

Dr Alan Archer-Boyd, Investigator Scientist at Medical Research Council

The International Journal of Audiology: An Overview and Article Preparation

Ross J. Roeser, PhD, Editor in Chief IJA, University of Texas at Dallas

An Internet-Based Cognitive Behavioural Intervention for Tinnitus

Eldr  Beukes, Clinical Scientist (Audiology), Anglia Ruskin University

Eustachian tube dysfunction: Can we measure it?

*Mr Matthew Smith
Specialist Registrar in ENT and Clinical Research
Associate,*

BSA turns 50 – a look back on audiology

Where it all began – an interview with Arthur Boothroyd

Arthur Boothroyd – Founding Member

A brief History of BSA Publishing

Dr Graham Frost – Past Chair

TS Littler: A founding father of UK Audiology

Prof Kevin Munro – Past Chair

Journal Club

Reviewing the impact of Otitis Media with effusion

Carmel Capewell – Researcher and Chartered Psychologist

How to run a Journal Club

Judith Bird, Clinical Scientist (Audiology), Addenbrookes Hospital, Cambridge

Learning Modules (2-3 hours of CPD through webinars, quizzes, case studies to challenge the way you think about a topic)

New Modules for early 2018

Hearing and Healthy Ageing in collaboration with the Ear Foundation

The Ear Foundation

Hearing & Communicating in a Technological Era

BPPV – an overview of diagnosis and treatment in collaboration with ACPIVR

The value and role of educational audiology in collaboration with PAIG, Mary Hare & Hereford University

